SEOUL

Seoul is surprising and enlightening. The South Korean capital city has become a bustling, urban and industrialised centre for the 10 million or so people calling it home. Situated on the banks of the Hangang River, Seoul is full of attractions both natural and historical. The city's nightlife and cuisine are highly favoured. It's easy to enjoy the modern city and its developments while also celebrating the city's rich history.

HIGHLIGHTS

Korea House
A traditional-style
Korean building.

Parks and Gardens
Great views of the city and other attractions.

Seoul City Bus or Walking Tours
See the sights with a dedicated tour guide.

KOREA HOUSE

Designed to provide tourists with the total Korean cultural experience, Korea House is a traditional style Korean building or 'hanok', where you can try traditional cuisine and listen to music. A tranquil, beautiful building with garden surrounds, it is a celebration of Korean culture in an experimental fashion. Try your own hand at Korean handicrafts, martial arts and kimchi making.

PARKS AND GARDENS

Seoul has many parks that provide not only recreational space for tourists, but great views of the city and other attractions. Namsan Park in the city centre provides great views of the North Seoul Tower and through to Hanok Village. Take a ride in the Namsan cable car or discover the local animals (including squirrels!). Seoul Grand Park and Seoul Forest are also great places to explore the city and relax.

SEOUL CITY BUS OR WALKING TOURS

Take one of the various tours through Seoul City and see the sights with a dedicated tour guide. The bus tours include an audio device so you can listen in English. Take a night tour or the Gangnam tour to discover the famous Gangnam area, where style and sophistication meet new heights. Explore Gangnam's 'West Hollywood' region of Cheongdam-dong, regarded as a celebrity street. Spoil yourself at the many boutiques in this chic precinct.

This was an unexpected stay provided by my airline as my flight from Dallas to Hong Kong was diverted to Seoul for various reasons. The hotel whose lobby is on the 36th floor with the rooms higher was wonderful. The room was exceptional and comfortable. All areas I encountered, room, lobby and restaurants were clean and very well kept. I certainly recommend staying at this fine hotel.

GYEONGJU

Gyeongju is a popular coastal city attracting about 9 million visitors annually. A major cultural and historical destination, Gyeongju was once the capital of the ancient Silla kingdom. Visitors can experience Buddhist artefacts and national treasures. While tourism is the major driving force, Gyeongju is becoming a manufacturing hub also and is home to roughly 250,000 people.

HIGHLIGHTS

Bulguksa Temple

Home to many national treasures and artefacts.

Seokguram Grotto

The 'representative stone temple of Korea'.

Yangdong Folk Village

A historic village from the Joseon Dynasty.

BULGUSKA TEMPLE

The Bulguksa Temple encapsulates Buddhist culture and the rich history of the city. Named a world heritage site by UNESCO, the temple was built in 528 A.D. during the Silla Dynasty. Home to many national treasures and artefacts, the temple consists of many bridge-like stairways that represent Buddha and man's journey through life. Tour the temple alone or as part of a tour of the city's ancient sites.

SEOKGURAM GROTTO

Seokguram Grotto is another world heritage site, an artificial stone temple on Mount Tohmasan which is regarded as the 'representative stone temple of Korea'. Built in the 8th century, the temple contains a statue of Buddha looking out into the sea. The inside of the grotto is not available for the public to view so make a trip to the Silla Arts and Science Museum where you can fully explore the historical site through pictures and descriptions.

YANGDONG FOLK VILLAGE

Yangdong is a historic village from the Joseon Dynasty. As a Korean state for about 5 centuries, Yangdong is also a world heritage site full of Korean national treasures. Located amongst the beautiful natural surroundings, the whole village is a heritage site. Surrounded by the beautiful Mount Seolchangsans are 160 old houses and cottages, preserved in their original state.

JEJU ISLAND

Jeju Island is a beautiful destination for honeymooners and couples located off the South Korean Coast. Idyllic beaches and the historic Hallasan volcano make for exotic and exciting surrounds, perfect for exploring and relaxation. The island has made it into the list of the world's new natural wonders with waterfalls, lava tubes, mountains, and beaches making it a unique and amazing Korean holiday destination.

HIGHLIGHTS

Hyeopjae Beach
Beautiful coloured seawater and surrounding forests.

Jeju Island Food
Home to some unique flavours..

Manjang Cave and Lava Tubes
A perfect spot to both cool down and explore.

Seongsan Sunrise Festival
A festive and spirited occasion.

HYEOPJAE BEACH

This long 9 km stretch of coastline makes for a perfect holiday. Beautiful coloured seawater and surrounding forests create a sense of paradise, with plenty of other attractions nearby. Visit Hamrin Park where you'll find the tourist sites of Hyeopjaegul Cave and Ssangyonggul Cave. Or travel to Biyangdo Island just off the coast where there are camping grounds and a secluded stretch of water.

JEJU ISLAND FOOD

Jeju Island is home to some unique flavours, so a visit here must include some culinary exploration! Try the seaweed and sea urchin soup, raw seafood, barbecued pork from the island's famous black pigs, and pheasant. A recommended stop is the Countryside Restaurant where you can try five-layered pork!

MANJANG CAVE & LAVA TUBES

A perfect spot to both cool down and explore the natural wonders of Jeju Island, the Manjang cave is over 8 km long, with 1 km of public walkway space. If you're not scared of delving into a deep, expansive cave, you can immerse yourself deep into nature. The cave is formed by cooling lava and its dark, cold, narrow interior may leave you feeling a little spooked.

SEONGSAN SUNRISE FESTIVAL

The Seongsan Sunrise Festival takes place at 'Sunrise Peak' (or the Seongsang Ilchulbong Peak) each New Year's Eve. The sunrise is spectacular up here and the festival includes a night hike up to the peak, lit by lanterns. Traditional dance performances are held where participants hold hands while moving in a large circle making wishes for the new year ahead. A festive and spirited occasion, fireworks and aerobics demonstrations are also on the list!

INFORMATION

PACKING ESSENTIALS

- Phrase book - If you have a limited knowledge of Korean.
- Money pouch - Make sure you don't lose anything in tightly packed markets.
- Hiking boots - Explore the beautiful national parks.

INFORMATION

TRAVEL TIPS

- Plan your visit to Sydney Airport by doing some research on the airport and your terminal, whether it be T1, T2 or T3.
- Check the security regulations in relation to what you can and cannot take through the security screening point and onto an aircraft, including prohibited items, dangerous goods, and liquids, aerosols, and gels (LAGs).
- Check your baggage allowance with your airline.
- Use the directional signage at the terminal to ensure a smooth and enjoyable journey through the airport.
- Ensure that your driver's licence can be used in your country of destination or that you have organised an international driver's licence.
- If you have not already purchased travel insurance along with your ticket, you can purchase it at Sydney Airport at the Last Chance Travel Insurance located in the International Terminal (T1) after Customs. Alternatively, purchase insurance at any Travelex outlet or the Australia Post Shop at International Terminal (T1) located before Customs, near check-in counter J.

GET TO THE AIRPORT

- Make sure you have plenty of time ahead of check-in. If you are unsure as to when you should arrive at the airport, contact your airline directly.

GET READY FOR BOARDING

- Security screening – whether your destination is within Australia or overseas, allow sufficient time to proceed through security screening.
- Australian Customs and Border Protection Service – allow sufficient time to proceed through Customs and Border Protection.
- Passports – must be valid for a minimum of six months ahead of your departing date for most countries. We strongly recommend you verify exact requirements with your airline.
- Boarding passes – issued at the airline check-in counter upon presentation of your ticket reservation (printed e-ticket) or booking confirmation number along with your valid passport.
- Immigration cards – available before you enter Customs and Border Protection. The cards must be filled out and presented to the Customs and Border Protection Officer along with your passport and boarding pass.
- Find your departing gate using display screens. These screens are available in the airline check-in area and at each departure gate.

RELAX

- At Sydney airport, you have plenty of options to shop while you are waiting to board your flight. Remember that all duty free purchases must be finalised 20 minutes before your flight departs.
